Nutrition Tips

BREAKFAST ESSENTIAL: HEALTHY FATS

Yet another crucial ingredient to keeping you full. Healthy fats, from avocados, nuts, olive oil, etc, also help the condition of your skin and hair and your brain functioning at optimal levels—needed for those business meetings or school tests!

Sources of Healthy Fats for Breakfast:

- Nuts/Nut Butter
- Coconut Oil: use for sautéing eggs or melted into a smoothie or oatmeal bowl.
- Avocados: Use avocados on avocado toast, or as a drizzle on eggs, like in my Sweet Potato Hash.
- Eggs
- Flax Seed: Try adding 1 tablespoon flax seed to smoothies and oatmeal.
- Coconut milk, almond milk, or regular milk

What Makes a Complete Meal:

Take ½ c. fruit, vegetable or juice and two other items! included 1%, skim, I
