The Search

The Ripley-Union-Lewis-Huntington Board of Education is actively seeking qualified applicants for the position of superintendent. The vacancy has resulted from the announced retirement of Dr. Linda Naylor, who has been serving the district since August 2013.

Salary and Contract

Salary will be competitive for the area and commensurate with experience and training. A strong fringe benefit package is also included.

The District

The Ripley-Union-Lewis-Huntington School District has an almost 200 year tradition in public education. The district, which encompasses 99 square miles, is located in southern Brown County Ohio and is comprised of three campuses. Located in Ripley, Ohio is the RULH Elementary School (pre-k through 4th) and RULH High School (grades 9-12). RULH Middle School (grades 5-8) is located in nearby Aberdeen, Ohio. In recent years the High School has earned the status as a High Progress School of Promise and the Middle School has received the Momentum Award. The High School boast as being only 1 of 3 District's in the State of Ohio to have a commissioned Marine Corps Junior Reserve Officer's Training Corps (MCJROTC) Unit with 177 cadets currently enrolled. In 2016, the RULH MCJROTC program was awarded the Reginal School of Distinction. As a District that continues to participate in the Ohio Improvement Process, it has actively involved DLT's, BLT's and TBT's across all three buildings, and has a 4 year graduation rate of 92.5%

The Mission

The Mission of the Ripley Union Lewis Huntington School District is to prepare all students to become productive global citizens who are career or college ready. The RULH School District will provide a strong educational foundation and learning experiences that will challenge all students to reach their fullest academic, social, and emotional potential. The RULH School District will provide a dynamic and rewarding educational system centered on student success, personal development, and preparation for life for all students.

The Community

Ripley, Aberdeen, and Higginsport are the three main villages who are extremely supportive of their school district, which offers area residents a sense of place, pride, and purpose. Just 50 miles east of Cincinnati on Route 52, Ripley has a spectacular view of the majestic Ohio River where camping, fishing, boating, swimming, and picnicking are enjoyed by thousands of guest each year.
