Information, Report: A. James Wilkins, Superintendent Monthly Update

Vision, Continuous Improvement and Focus of District Work

I met with the RULH Administrative Team on Monday, August 1 st . We discussed preparations for the 2022-2023 school year.

My opening day presentation for all RULH District employees was held directly after the in-service breakfast. We focused on teacher and student accomplishments from the 2021-2022 school year.

Teachers have been working to prepare for the school year by completing professional development in regards to providing gifted services to students. Building level meetings have been held this week.

I will report state test results from the 2021-2022 school year at the September board meeting.

Communication and Collaboration

On Friday, August 5 th, I attended the Brown County Superintendents' meeting.

On Friday, August 5 th, I attended the in-service at the Brown County ESC.

Policies and Governance

I plan to meet with the RULH OTES Committee in early September. The committee will review the current OTES/OSCES manual and adjust it accordingly.

The 22-23 RULH Student Handbooks were printed by Standard Quick Print and were delivered to the principals.

On Thursday, August 4 th, the SHAC Board of Directors met with the league athletic directors. The SHAC Board members (7 superintendents and one assistant superintendent) voted me as Board President of the SHAC for the fifth consecutive year.

Instruction

We will be utilizing Schools PLP (Personal Learning Platform) for credit recovery purposes and for students (or families) who have documented medical reasons that prevent them from attending school in-person.

Resources

The PrimaryPlus Ripley School Based Health Center is still doing very well. The dental is doing ok but still has room for growth.

The high school track is completed. It looks great.

The power washing of the buildings has been completed. They look much better.

Roberts Paving did an outstanding job of filling, sealing and painting the middle school parking lot. It looks fantastic.

Thank you to Mr. Zurbuch, Mr. Phillips and the custodial staff for preparing the schools for the new school year.
